

Washington, DC – Today, the House of Representatives passed Walz legislation to improve care for veterans suffering from Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI).

“Our wounded warriors deserve the best care and support we can give them,” said Rep. Tim Walz, who

TBI has become a signature wound during the Iraq and Afghanistan wars. Unfortunately, because of am

Passage of this legislation comes the day Rep. Walz returned from a visit to Afghanistan to learn more about the treatment soldiers get in the field when they suffer from TBI and their journey to recovery. Walz’s bill was a bipartisan effort by several members of the Veterans’ Affairs Committee.
